TRAIN ROBBERS GET MORE THAN $7,000,000

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 17.—That the loss in the robbery of a Burlington mail train at Council Bluffs Saturday is the greatest in the history of crime in this country, was the intimation of a federal officer working on the case. It is officially known that one of the mail pouches contained $750,000 in bonds, and unofficially that another held $800,000, also in bonds. There were ten pouches altogether, and if this ratio were upheld the loss would exceed $7,000,000.

HARDING LEAVES TEXAS FOR NEW ORLEANS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WITH PRESIDENT-ELECT HARDING, EN ROUTE TO NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—The "Harding Special," carrying the president-elect and his party, left Brownsville at 10 o'clock this morning for New Orleans to embark for a ten day cruise to the Panama Canal zone. A few rear-platform speeches will be made. Harding is scheduled to address the Chamber of Commerce on his arrival in New Orleans tomorrow.

HOPES LABORS OF LEAGUE WILL BE OF VALUE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—President Wilson, in a message to Paul Hymans, president of the League of Nations Assembly, today expressed the "hope that labors of the assembly will be of immense value to the whole civilized world." The message was in reply to one from Hymans in behalf of the Assembly, praising Wilson's work toward the establishment of the League.

NEW VENTURE IN CHARITY WORK

COMMUNITY WELFARE COUNCIL ENLARGES SPHERE OF ACTIVITIES

GLENDALE HELPS

THRIFT SHOP ONE OF LATEST IDEAS FOR RAISING NEEDED FUNDS

One of the local women who is taking an active part in a new venture in the line of charity work being installed by the Community Welfare council of Los Angeles, is Mrs. R. W. Meeker, of 1320 East Colorado street. The good work of this organization is extended to all parts of Los Angeles county. A "Thrift Shop" has been started at 216 Coulter Bldg., Los Angeles. This is along the lines of a women's exchange, where fancy work and all sorts of lovely things may be exchanged for practical garments, material or money. Many people are helped in this way who are unable to leave their homes to engage in active occupations.

During the war the Community Welfare council extended a helping hand to the soldiers, sailors and their families. The council had milk bottles distributed throughout the city, wherein pennies could be dropped. The proceeds were used to send many small children to Playa Del Rey for the summer. A boarding home for girls has also just recently been established in Los Angeles.

The four ladies having charge of the "Thrift Shop" are Mrs. Meyers, Mrs. Cate, Mrs. Rodgers and Mrs. Meeker. Many beautiful holiday gifts can be purchased here at reasonable prices, and the purchasers can rest assured that the money spent is going to a worthy cause.

If this undertaking proves successful, it is probable that other thrift shops will be established in some of the nearby cities.

Literary Section

The Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon club met at the home of its curator, Mrs. A. F. Williams of 208 South Orange street, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. C. A. Brandstater read "Legend," by Dane. Mrs. Annie Williams resumed the study of "Greece After the War," and gave an interesting and comprehensive review. Current events were read by Mrs. W. H. Verity and Mrs. Hollingsworth. Plans were discussed for the Tuesday Afternoon club bazaar, at which this section will have charge of the apron and holder booth. Aprons of all sorts, sizes and shapes have already been donated, and seldom has such enthusiasm been shown. The members have been meeting at the home of Mrs. Williams and sewing bees have piled the aprons high, so that the success of this booth is assured.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair.

FINGERS FLEW

AND TONGUES DID, TOO, AT MEETING OF THE NIMBLE FINGERS CLUB

Twenty members of the Nimble Fingers' club were guests of Mrs. Carl Moore yesterday afternoon, at her home, 1259 South Maryland avenue. Mrs. Hattie Tiffany assisted the hostess.

A record attendance, a record good time and a record collection for the sewing materials was reported by the club, whose activities are devoted to the relief fund of the Daughters of Veterans.

A nice, warm comfort was finished yesterday, balls of carpet rags grew to the size of snow balls we use to roll "back East" in winter time and plans grew apace, too, for the food sale the club is to hold on Saturday from 2 to 5 o'clock in the Central Market.

Mrs. Dora Hall, of 126 South Maryland, became the proud possessor of the last quilt finished by the ladies.

P. E. O. Luncheon

A very enjoyable affair was the luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. Chas. Fischer of Burbank, who is chairman of the convention committee of Chapter U, P. E. O. Invitations had been issued to the convention committees of Chapters A. H. and B. A. of Glendale. These three chapters will entertain the state convention in Burbank in April. Those present were Mrs. Marion Garvin of Los Angeles, Mesdames Bowen, Humphrey, Kendall and Knox of Burbank; Mesdames Arthur Cross, Oliver Clark and Walter Stamps of Chapter B. A., Glendale; Mesdames Wm. Wattles, J. Herbert Smith and Joseph Webster of Chapter A. H., Glendale.

Injured by Auto

Mrs. Helen Mead, janitress at the telephone office, met with quite a serious accident last night about 10 o'clock. She was crossing the street toward the telephone company's building and had just passed a standing street car when she stepped in front of an auto driven south by H. Scott, of 1098 Norton avenue, Pasadena, and was knocked down. She suffered a severe cut on the head, a broken collar bone and a broken rib. Dr. Young was called and dressed the wounds. She was taken to the home of Mrs. Peters, 315 West Wilson Ave., where she is resting comfortably.

Their Advertising Paid

Messrs. Frank and Vincent Salmacia, of the Glendale Phonograph & Piano Company, 109 North Brand boulevard, express themselves as well pleased with the results of their advertising of their great sale which has just closed.

The page advertisements which they ran in the Evening News brought many people to their store and as their pianos, phonographs and other musical merchandise substantiated the statements made in their advertisements, the firm made many sales.

ELECTION OF FREEHOLDERS

FEW VOTES ARE CAST

ONLY 116 CITIZENS EXERCISED THEIR RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE THIS TIME

There were 116 ballots cast in the election held yesterday to choose 15 freeholders to draft a charter to be submitted to the voters of Glendale for adoption or rejection. There was some scratching done and several names were written in. The vote of the eight precincts is given below, the highest number cast for any one candidate being given in the first column of figures and the lowest in the second column:

Precinct 1	12	9
" 2	14	13
" 3	8	8
" 4	18	16
" 5	16	15
" 6	13	13
" 7	27	25
" 8	8	7
Totals	116	106

The candidates chosen were A. W. Beach, Geo. H. Bentley, C. W. Ingledue, Henry Johnston, C. E. Kimlin, C. D. Lusby, R. M. McGee, Frank L. Muhleman, May E. Myton, W. R. Phelon, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, Mabel L. Tight, F. H. Vesper, Bert P. Woodard, Geo. B. Woodberry. Thirteen other Glendale citizens were given one vote each and in precinct No. 1 a vote each was given Warren G. Harding, James M. Cox, Hiram Johnson and Mary Pickford.

The duty of this committee is to formulate a charter for the governing of the city of Glendale. For this purpose it has been promised by some of the members of the committee that public meetings will be held at intervals to receive suggestions from interested citizens. If at the end of four months the work is not completed, the city trustees may grant the committee two months' further time. When the proposed charter is ready, copies must be printed and one given to each voter of the city and at the end of two months an election shall be called to vote on the question of accepting or rejecting the charter framed.

There are three forms of city government allowed by the laws of California. One is by trustees and a city manager, such as Glendale now has, another is the commission form, which Long Beach, Pasadena and several other municipalities have been working under, but which they have voted to discard for the city manager plan, and the third is that of mayor and councilmen from specified wards or from the city at large.

Burbank Not to Annex

Burbank prefers to go it alone instead of annexing to Los Angeles. In the election on that question, held yesterday, only 92 votes were cast for the proposition and 847 against, out of a total registration of about 1300. It was thought a week ago that the election would be postponed, as those favoring annexation sought a mandamus to prevent its being held yesterday, on the ground that the city trustees had over-stated, in advertising issued, the amount of indebtedness of the city of Los Angeles the citizens of Burbank would have to pay a proportionate share of interest on in case of annexation, but the court in which the action was brought was so clogged with business that no decision was possible for 50 days. Water and sewerage were the questions involved in the contest.

Zoning Committee

The zoning committee, which meets in the council chamber this afternoon at 3:30, is to consider the question of designating that part of the city east of Adams and south of Maple as a zone for the establishing of motion picture studios. This committee is doing its work carefully, consulting with the citizens interested as it proceeds, hoping to give satisfaction to all.

From Indiana

Mr. and Mrs. William Foster of Gary, Ind., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hurd of 110 South Adams street. Mr. Foster has joined L. C. Davis of the transfer company and expects to make Glendale his permanent residence.

INTERESTING TRAVELS

UNIQUE BEAUTY

OF LAVA WALLS, HIGH CLIFFS, TALL PINES, AZURE SKY, AND DEEP BLUE LAKE

Miss Jennie B. Brown, of 209 North Kenwood St., has just returned from a trip to Crater Lake National Park, in southern Oregon, where the scenery, she tells us, rivals anything she has seen in California; and that's saying a great deal, for Miss Brown has visited various beauty spots of our own state and is, moreover, an intelligent and appreciative critic.

Crater Lake is said to be the deepest and the bluest lake in the world. It has usurped the site of a volcano that was one of a "noble band of fire mountains which, like beacons, once blazed along the Pacific coast." Because of its unique character and extraordinary beauty it was made a national park in 1902. It is one of the most distinguished spots in a land noted for the nobility and distinction of its scenery.

The lake has no inlet and no known outlet. It occupies the hole left when a volcano collapsed and disappeared within itself, in the old ages, dim with mystery, before man came upon the scene. Its cliffs from sky-line to surface are a thousand feet high.

Other lands have lakes of volcanic formation—India, and Hawaii and Germany and Italy. The United States has but one crater lake and it is decidedly the finest of its kind in the world. Its color is said to be unbelievable even while you are looking at it. The lake is a gem of wonderful color set in pearly lavas, with patches of pine-green and snow white for relief—a gem irridescent, whose

TREES BURNED

FIRE DESTROYS FINE SPECIMENS ON HODGSON PLACE; NEIGHBOR WAKES OWNER

Last night a fire of unkonwn origin destroyed a number of handsome trees on the property of Mrs. J. S. Hodgson, on the San Fernando road, just outside the city limits of Glendale.

H. R. Owen was going home from his grocery store at about eleven o'clock when he saw flames shoot up a tall pine on the Hodgson place. Running toward the house he found a number of other trees on fire close to the home where Mrs. Hodgson lives alone.

Mr. Owen, unable to awaken Mrs. Hodgson by pounding on the doors, was forced to cut a screen, enter the house and shake the lady into wakefulness. Even then he had difficulty in convincing her of her danger.

Numbers of beautiful palms, pines and other trees were destroyed, but the house was not damaged. It must surely have been destroyed had the wind veered to the north or the east. The Los Angeles fire department responded promptly and extinguished the blaze.

The Hodgson place is well known to residents of this section. Mrs. Hodgson has lived there for many years and raises beautiful flowers. A few years ago her home was known as "The Lilacs" from the lovely lilac bushes Mrs. Hodgson cultivated.

While bemoaning the fate of her fine old trees, Mrs. Hodgson is thankful that her life and her home were spared to her.

Unique Vehicle

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Phillips, of the Jewel City Undertaking parlors, have added a wonderful new mortuary coach to the equipment of the establishment.

The vehicle is absolutely unique; it was built by Sayers & Scoville, of Cincinnati, Ohio, according to plans and ideas originated by Mr. Phillips himself.

Mr. Phillips' idea seems to have been inspired by thoughtful sympathy for those bereft by death of a loved one; he has eliminated all appearance, outwardly, of a mortuary coach—this vehicle looks like a fine limousine. It has side doors and also a single back door.

The seats and all the finishings are done in Spanish leather, and the effect is rich and elegant.

POLICY OF RED CROSS

DID NOT REFUSE AID

REPORT TO THAT EFFECT IS EMPHATICALLY DENIED BY MR. FILMER

George Filmer, head of the Pacific Division of the American Red Cross, has written Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward, who is in charge of the Red Cross Roll Call in Glendale, in reply to a message in which Mrs. Hayward asked about the truth of a report that the American Red Cross had refused aid to starving children in Ireland. Mr. Filmer wired Mrs. Hayward yesterday that the report was untrue and followed up his message with the following statement which outlines the policy of the Red Cross:

My Dear Mrs. Hayward:—

Confirming our telegram relative to Red Cross aid in Ireland, beg to refer you to the statement of Dr. Livingston Farrand, of the American Red Cross, which is as follows:

"Inquiries have been made of American Red Cross as to any plans they may have in mind in regard to the relief of distress in Ireland. No definite plans to that end have been formulated. The Red Cross views with deep sympathy and solicitude the suffering and distress in Ireland as well as other parts of the world. Following its regular procedure, it has requested of its representatives in Europe a report on the situation, both as to the need and practicability of American Red Cross assistance. Such report has not yet been received. Further, there has not come to the American Red Cross from the government of the United States nor from any government concerned, nor from the League Red Cross societies, to some of which agencies the American Red Cross under its practice would look for initiative in this matter, any intimation that conditions call for immediate offer of such assistance as the American Red Cross might be expected to render under its charter. Should conditions demand and international situation permit, the American Red Cross would gladly give such aid as would be consistent with its resources, obligations elsewhere, and responsibility to American public."

With kindest personal regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,
GEORGE FILMER,
Manager.

Fathers Are Guests

The November meeting of the Pacific avenue P.-T. A. was an evening meeting in consideration of the fathers, who cannot attend an afternoon affair.

The court where the program was given was in festive array, decorations of cornstalks and autumn leaves being in keeping with the charming musical play, "The Pilgrims," which the children of the school contributed to the program.

An address by County Superintendent Mark Keppel was the other important feature of the evening, and a social hour followed, during which refreshments were served.

Old Resident Passes

Mrs. Ann Gleason passed out of this life at Burbank on her eighty-third birthday, November 16, 1920.

Mrs. Gleason was a native of Michigan. She was well known in this vicinity, having lived in various places near here for more than fifty years. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Kittie G. Williams, of Pomona, and Miss Mary Gleason, of Burbank.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at the L. G. Scovern parlors, Glendale, at half past two, and interment was made in Grand View cemetery.

Entertained at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dixon, of 318 Mira Loma avenue, entertained at dinner on Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hensley, of Fresno, and H. E. Collage.

Places were marked at the prettily appointed dinner table for the honor guests, Mesdames Wesley L. Smith and W. W. Laubach of Topeka, Kansas, and the sons of the hosts, Earl and Edwin Dixon, who are spending a short vacation with their parents.

TWO KILLED IN COLLISION WITH P. E. CAR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WILMINGTON, Nov. 17.—Two men were killed and two others were so seriously injured that they are not expected to recover, when an automobile in which they were riding was struck and demolished today by a Pacific Electric train here. The victims were J. Tuada and G. Gomez. All those in the car were Mexicans.

FATE OF CIVILIANS WORRIES DIPLOMATS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 17.—The fate of thousands of civilians left in Sebastopol in the Bolshevik triumph worried European diplomats today. General Wrangel has arrived here with 20,000 troops. French representatives today confirmed reports that they had threatened reprisals if harm came to civilians.

FIVE WORKERS ASPHYXIATED IN MINE FIRE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

EARLINGTON, Ky., Nov. 17.—Five of sixteen men trapped by fire in the Arnold mine near here were taken out dead today. They were victims of suffocation. The other eleven were rescued and are in a serious condition.

MANY FALL BEFORE MACHINE GUN FIRE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ATHENS, Nov. 17.—Rioting broke out today in front of the Foreign Office as a result of the national election. Many persons, including a number of children, were reported wounded when the space before the office was swept with machine gun fire. Adherents of King Constantine were blamed for the firing.

SMALL FORTUNE

ALLEN ALDRICH, FORMER CITIZEN, INHERITS $30,000—WILL RETURN TO GLENDALE

Allen Aldrich, who lived for several years at 460 Oak street, where he developed the rear portion of his lot into a miniature fruit farm with a great variety of choice trees and plants, has been greatly favored by fortune lately. A relative in the East died and left him $30,000. He sold his Glendale property about a year ago and has since been acting as steward on one of the ships of the merchant marine touching at Los Angeles harbor. He has notified old friends and former neighbors here that he expects to return to Glendale to live just as soon as he can leave his present work. He expects to buy property and go into fruit raising on a more extended scale.

Series of Entertainments

Refuting the oft-made statement that adherents of their faith are lacking in sociability, the ladies of Holy Family church are entertaining in their various homes this winter (since Catholic churches are held strictly as houses of worship), with diversions of various sorts, and a general invitation is extended their friends.

Mrs. William Gies and Mrs. W. R. Heustis were hostesses on Tuesday evening at a sewing bee; Mrs. Frank Clark is to be hostess at two card parties at her home in North Orange avenue tomorrow afternoon and evening, the Y. L. I. girls are giving a dance on Saturday evening and Mrs. Heustis entertained with a dancing party on last Saturday evening.

Northern Visitors

Misses Gertrude and May Hines, of York, North Dakota, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hock, of 612 East Orange Grove avenue.

The young ladies arrived yesterday for a two months' visit here. They were schoolmates of Miss Ida Hock in North Dakota. While they are only winter visitors this year, it is probable that they will be accompanied by the rest of the Hines family next winter, and that they will then all become permanent residents of Glendale.

Mrs. Bartlett Passes

Mrs. Emma Bartlett passed away at her home, 3502 Casitas street, on November 14th. She was a native of Missouri and had lived in this vicinity for seven years.

Mrs. Bartlett was 60 years of age. Two sons and a daughter survive her. Funeral services were held at two o'clock this afternoon in the Little Church of the Flowers and interment was made in Forest Lawn cemetery.

DANNERS BOOST FOR GLENDALE

HERE FROM KANSAS

MOTOR OUT FROM SUNFLOWER STATE AND DECIDE TO REMAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Danner, of 1631 Gardena avenue, are hosts to a houseful of Eastern guests, thus doing their "bit" to encourage new settlers in California and to serve humanity by introducing them to the beauties and comforts of "God's country."

Recent arrivals at the Danner home include a group of relatives from Winfield, Kan. They are Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bingman and their son Neal, and Mrs. Bingman's sister, Miss Atkinson, of Ohio.

They motored leisurely from Kansas in a little less than three weeks, camping out three nights, but preferring comfortable hotel beds for the rest of the journey. They stopped where they pleased and as long as they pleased, had good weather, good roads, a good time, and arrived here on Monday, not a bit tired.

Mr. Bingman has sold out his oil interests in Kansas and will take up ranching near Selma, Calif., where his wife's brother has a fine ranch.

Other guests in the Danner home are Mr. Danner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. S. Danner, their son, E. N. Danner and his two children, from Southern Kansas. They have bought property in San Pedro and will locate there.

Observe Birthday

The seventh birthday of LaVerne Gurnee was celebrated at the home of Mrs. H. M. Merrill of 340 North Cedar street, Saturday, with a very delightful little party. The rooms were decorated in red carnations and greenery. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and candy were served. The lovely birthday cake, which was adorned with seven lighted candles, was made by Mrs. Ed M. Lee. Games were played. Little LaVerne received many beautiful gifts. The little folks present were Evelyn Maxson, Barbara Campbell, Margaret Blade, Virginia Woodard, Francis Mandis, Malcolm McIrvin, Stanley Warman and Kenneth Lee. The grown-ups included Mesdames Ed M. Lee, Dorothy Weller, N. W. Warman, O. R. Barnett, J. E. Goodwin of Kansas City, Ruby Wadsworth and Paul Springer. Mrs. Paul Springer, aunt of LaVerne, and Mrs. Ruby Wadsworth assisted in entertaining the guests.

Unique Bet

OAKLAND, Cal., Nov. 17.—While freak election bets have run the gamut, City Attorney Frank V. Cornish of Berkeley claims the distinction of having lost one of the most unique to Attorney B. D. Marx Greene of Oakland.

Cornish bet on Cox. The bet required the payment of $22.50 to the winner. Nothing remarkable about that.

But the money was to be paid on the installment plan at the rate of a penny an hour.

Immediately after Cox's defeat was certain Cornish began payment but when he had paid regularly for five hours he began to get tired. So being an attorney, he discovered that if Greene were not on hand to receive the money he could claim the right to pay it in a lump sum, which he did, thereby saving himself the necessity of visiting Greene each hour for 2250 hours.

A man may suffer some wrongs without complaining, but he does not want anyone to interfere with his rights.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Grace Clancy of Phoenix, Arizona, is spending the week with Mrs. Jack Thomas of the White Inn.

Mrs. and Miss Hole of Venice were the guests of Mrs. Louise B. Simon, 217 Hawthorne street, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hunter and family of 1508 San Fernando road motored to Chino and Upland Sunday.

Henry Van Pelt of 417 North Central avenue has returned from an eastern trip, having been gone about a month.

Edward Gabel has purchased the "Mountain Lunch Room" at 708 E. Broadway from Mrs. G. Glass and has taken possession of the same.

R. Roberts of 406 West Maple St. spent Sunday and Monday with his wife at Hermosa Beach. He found her greatly improved in health.

The executive board of the Glendale City Teachers' club will hold a meeting this evening at the home of the president, Miss Clara Midcalf.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cushing, who motored to Glendale from Brockton, Massachusetts, are visiting their friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Walker, of 46 Vine street.

Mrs. J. E. Flewelling of Canterbury, New Brunswick, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McIntyre of 718 East Harvard street, left for her home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jenkins and daughter Eloise, formerly of Phoenix, Arizona, are having their furniture shipped to Glendale and will make their home at 908 North Louise street until they build.

Harry Ingledue of Colorado Springs arrived in Glendale last week and is making his home with his brother, C. W. Ingledue, of 411 North Central avenue. Mr. Ingledue is an experienced linotype operator.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Jauncey of Williamstown, New York, were visitors in Glendale yesterday and called on Mrs. W. P. MacMullin, of 215 North Brand boulevard, and C. J. Orff, of 109 East Broadway.

Mrs. Crampton's committee of Tuesday Afternoon club ladies, who will have charge of the grab-bag booth at the bazaar to be given soon by that organization, met at the home of Mrs. R. E. Downing, 206-A Hawthorne street, this afternoon.

Rev. Chas. M. Calderwood and wife have bought a home at 370 Salem street and will obtain possession about Jan. 1st. For the present they are staying at Hartley Shaw's, 212 West Park avenue. Rev. Calderwood is the new Congregational minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou G. Sherman of 316 West Lexington drive attended an elaborate dinner dance given by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Maxwell, of Los Angeles, at the Athletic club last evening. Mr. Maxwell is the Studebaker representative of Los Angeles district.

Dr. L. H. Hurtt, who has been quite ill for several months, is getting along nicely. He is now able to be up and around his home at 3816 Ingraham street, Los Angeles. A telephone message to this effect was received from him at his office on East Broadway today.

One of the auto parties to arrive in Glendale recently from the east was that of four automobile loads which had traveled from Erie, Pennsylvania. The passengers were Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mentzer, Mr. and Mrs. James Mentzer and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson and family. All have purchased residences in Glendale and will make it their home.

The Women's society of the First Presbyterian church held its regular meeting yesterday. The Pastor's Aid society spent the morning in sewing and preparing comfortables for missionary boxes and for the local welfare council. Luncheon was served at noon. In the afternoon a business meeting was held. Plans for the coming year for missionary work and the new building fund were discussed. A large number were present, including many strangers and new members.

Friends of Miss Mary Sherrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Sherrick of 311 North Belmont street, will be pleased to learn that she is home from the hospital and is recovering from a broken collar bone, received when she and members of her Sunday school class, which was having a picnic, were hiking in Verdugo mountains and the ground suddenly became loosened, causing her to slide quite a distance. The bone was so badly broken that it was necessary to wire it together.

Phileas Prunier, who has been a very successful business man in Lee, Mass., where he handled the Ford auto agency, has come to the West coast with his wife to locate. They are at present in Hollywood. Mr. Prunier was in Glendale last evening to see his old friend and fellow townsman, Rev. Calderwood, the new Congregational minister, and the two were callers on the Evening News. Mr. Prunier is so favorably impressed with Glendale and so enthused over its marvelous growth that he is very desirous of making a business connection here, preferably as selling agent for some standard auto.

O. J. Gains is building a three-room house and garage at 630 East Colorado, to cost $1900.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Denver, Colorado, are visiting their cousins, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Smith, of 921 East Wilson avenue.

J. A. Christie of 1325 North Central avenue brought his wife and the new baby boy home from the hospital yesterday.

J. H. Lord has moved from 236 South Cedar to Pomona, where he is traffic manager for the new Pasadena to Pomona auto bus line.

Mrs. C. A. Mattson, who was living at 312 North Belmont, has rented the remodeled bungalow at 216, formerly 224 South Louise, and is moving in today. The place now belongs to A. H. Chapman.

V. E. Skiles has moved from 706 East Lomita avenue to Hemet; Mrs. Frances B. Stamp and daughter Lillian from 615 South Louise to Los Angeles; Mrs. Larkin from 202 Fairview avenue to Newport Beach.

Mrs. Samuel Liles has sold the home at 1437 Valley View Road to Willard Lewis and wife of Hollywood, who took possession yesterday. Mrs. Liles will visit a sister in Inglewood for a few days, then go to San Antonio, Texas, to join her husband, Dr. Samuel Liles, who is there for the winter, taking treatment. They expect to return to Glendale next spring to make their home.

Mrs. Lewis Davis of Indiana was the guest of honor at a luncheon given at the home of Mrs. J. D. Hale, 134 North Belmont street, yesterday. Chrysanthemums were used for decorating, tiny pink ones forming the centerpiece of the luncheon table. A color scheme of pink and green was carried out. The guests were Mesdames Hurd, Oscar Stees, Evans, Foster, W. A. Hale, Paugh and Miss Marion Addison.

The regular meeting of Carnation Lodge No. 257, Rebekahs, was held last evening in their hall on East Broadway. Two members were initiated, Mrs. Cora B. Pettit and Miss Bernice Canaday. After the initiatory work a banquet was served in the dining room to about fifty Rebekahs and Odd Fellows. The tables were decorated in pink and green, the Rebekah colors. Following the banquet a general social good time was enjoyed.

Two naval officers from one of the ships in San Pedro harbor had quite an auto smashup last night about 12 o'clock, at the S curve in San Fernando Road, a short distance south of Riverdale Drive. They did not notice a red light in the road until almost upon it and then swerved so quickly that the auto was run into the curb. One of the men was considerably bruised and cut. A wrecking car from the Los Angeles garage where they had rented the auto they were driving towed the wrecked car in and took them to the city, also.

INTERESTING TRIP

hues change with every atmospheric change and every shift of light.

The great range of gray, silver and pearl tones in the carved and fretted lava walls, the intense gleam of occasional snow patches, the olive and pine-green shades in woods and mosses, the vivid azure of the cloud-flecked sky, and the lake's many shades of blue, from brilliant turquoise at its edges to the midnight blue of its depths of deepest shadow, fill with hushed awe even the least impressionable observer. Our own Joaquin Miller called Crater Lake "The Sea of Silence."

The sun plays wonderful tricks with the lights and shadows on the lake and the cliffs, and at times the scene changes as if by magic, before your very eyes.

"Apart from its attractive scenic features," writes J. S. Diller, of the United States Geological Survey, "Crater Lake affords one of the most interesting and instructive fields for the study of volcanic geology to be found anywhere in the world. Considered in all its aspects, it ranks with the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, the Yosemite Valley, and the Falls of Niagara, but with an individuality that is superlative."

But unless you are a geologist, the origin of Crater Lake's Wizard Island as told by the Klamath and Modoc Indians will interest you more than the picture geology has restored to us of the falling of Mount Mazama into itself, and the birth in succeeding ages of Crater Lake and Wizard Island.

Briefly, they tell you that the great god Llao, whose home was the mystic land of Gaywas, was captured in a war with Skell, the god of the neighboring Klamath Marshes. Upon the highest cliff his body was torn into fragments and cast into the lake. In the infinite depths of its blue waters was Llao's throne, surrounded by his warriors. These were giant crawfish, able to lift great, monstrous claws out of the water and seize too venturesome enemies on the cliffs, a thousand feet above the surface of the lake. Believing that these were fragments of Skell's body being cast into the lake, they ate them as they fell. But when Llao's head was thrown in, the monsters recognized it and would not eat it. So Llao's great head still lies in the lake, and white men call it Wizard Island. The cliff where Llao was torn to pieces is named Llao Rock.

Miss Brown and a party of friends from her old home in Worcester, Massachusetts, spent several days on the rim of the lake. They motored from the town of Medford, 84 miles from the lake, through winding roads in the Oregon pine forests. There is a good hotel, built of the stone of the neighborhood, on the lake's brim. The lounge in this hotel is 40 by 60 feet, without a pillar or post, and its huge fireplace is said to be the largest in the state of Oregon. There are also facilities for camping.

Although it is not an easy place in which to fish, because the slopes are not convenient for casting, the results are said to justify the effort made in fishing here; for this magnificent body of cold, fresh water contains great numbers of trout, ranging from one to ten pounds in weight. Anglers of experience say that the rainbow trout of Crater Lake are the hardest-fighting trout of all.

Miss Brown has a large, beautiful, colored picture of Crater Lake, showing the lights and shadows on sky and water, Wizard Island and the steep, many-colored cliffs.

The party visited Grant's Pass, 35 miles from Medford, Ashton, Sulphur Springs, and other points of interest in the country of bosc pears and fine apples. At one point in their journey their automobile broke down, and they spent the night in the forest. This they regarded as great good fortune, for it gave them an opportunity to view the beauty of bright stars through the tall pine trees.

S. H. Head is moving from 1203 South Maryland avenue just across the street to a new house nearing completion at 1206.

Another lot of new houses approaching completion as indicated by the records of the Public Service department are the following: H. L. Dingman, 441 West Broadway; J. H. Weeda, 1308 East Wilson avenue; E. J. Hoffman, 369 Burchett; J. A. Haines, 352 North Jackson; F. W. Landreth, 211 West Eulalia; S. H. Head, 1206 South Maryland avenue; J. H. Huff, 1027 Boynton.

LeRoy Volkhart, of 407 West Lomita avenue, had an unusual and rather unpleasant experience a few nights ago. He had a very severe cold and took an electric pad to bed with him to assist in a cure. Along toward morning some movement of his caused a short circuit and a fire was started which burned the bed clothes and Roy's night clothes considerably before the suddenly-awakened youth could smother the flames.

Something Slipped

Either the wind blew the leaves of the calendar askew, or the reporter's wits went wool-gathering for a fraction of a second, or the linotyper found the "copy" illegible, or the proofreader didn't "register" thought on the matter—whatever happened, we called Thursday of this week November 10th, in speaking yesterday of the Methodist day of prayer and the large meeting of the Woman's Missionary societies. Anyone with half an eye might see that Thursday this week must be the 18th, but to make sure that we're not to blame if anyone doesn't, we hereby state that Thursday, the 18th, is the annual day of prayer solemnly and sacredly observed by all loyal Methodists.

Luncheon Guests

Members of committees of Glendale P. E. O. chapters A. H. and B. A. were guests yesterday at a pretty three-course luncheon given by Mrs. Charles Fischer at her home in Burbank, at which plans were made for the P. E. O. convention to be held next April.

Glendale guests included Mesdames Wattles, Webster, and Herbert Smith, of A. H. chapter, and Mesdames A. D. Cross, Oliver Clark, and Walter Stamps of chapter B. A. Mrs. Marian Garvin, of Los Angeles, accompanied the Glendale guests.

Other guests were six delegates from Burbank chapters.

Russia World Problem

No matter what may be thought of the entrance of the United States into an association of nations to work to prevent war, this nation, as well as the other great world powers is confronted with a world problem in the present situation in Russia.

With the making of peace with Poland, the soviet government of Russia has set about to strengthen itself by attacking the forces of General Wrangel in the Crimea, and dispatches say that his army is being driven back by the Bolshevists. The world need expect nothing honorable from the red government of Russia.

While all the governments of Western Europe have expressed their condemnation of the soviet system in Russia, the French government is the only one that has gone to the extent of recognizing General Wrangel as the de facto head of Russia. This recognition will avail him little against an overwhelming force of soviet troops.

Great Britain is not disposed to give the anti-bolshevists of Russia any assistance since peace has been made with Poland, and it is said that Italy is even opposed to establishing an embargo against the soviet government in Southern Europe. With the defeat of General Wrangel little hope for the immediate salvation of Russia will be entertained.

There is nothing to indicate that an effort to throw off the tyranny of bolshevism will be attempted soon if the work of General Wrangel should fail. Economic conditions are very bad in Russia, and the masses may be driven to the point of revolt, but this would only bring on greater repression on the part of the soviet leaders.

GERMAN SOVIET

NEW PLAN MADE BY EXTREME LEFT WING OF SOCIALISTS FOR MOSCOW PRINCIPLES

By CARL D. GROAT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, Nov. 8. (By Mail.)—Germany's "Neukommunisten"—new communists, as the extreme left of the Independent party is called since the Halle convention—want to start putting Moscow principles into practice in Germany.

They believe with Sinowjew, Russian agitator and demagogue, that they can get a dictatorship of the proletariat and a soviet regime in Germany. And, their leaders say, they are prepared to undertake the fight at an early date. As this is written, the new communists are busying themselves with the task of seizing Independent party treasuries and trying to get control of the party organs. They started in immediately after the Halle convention, grabbed the party paper in Halle, "Das Hallesche Volksrecht," threw out the right-wing editors and put in Moscow disciples. They likewise sent a force of strong-arm youngsters to the central office of the Independent party here to seize party documents. A courageous night watchman drove them off. This is merely the first step in the pro-Moscowites fight.

They call themselves Independents still, just as the right wingers do. But, they propose to get the party machinery, especially the party organs like the influential "Freiheit" here under their control. Thereafter, according to their ideas, they will be ready for their battle against their "enemy," the capitalists.

If one takes the left-wingers' talk seriously, one can picture a dire and dreadful winter in Berlin and other sections of Germany.

But, the truth of the matter as seen by careful observers probably is not as black—or as red—as the new communists paint things.

They are regarded as strong enough to undertake some reign of terror at various points and times. But, on the whole, their strength is everywhere estimated as too small to upset the present order of things. Breitscheid of the right wing, for instance, forsees that the reds will attempt to put through the terroristic program, but he adds confidently that the moderates will have their innings directly afterward.

The creation of a new communist group in Germany has not the dire significance that many persons would attribute to it.

1. That the left wing formation merely separates the sheep from the goats.

2. The creation of a party favoring force and terror is not a new thing, for the persons who now cast their lot with Moscow are the people who have always preached terror and practised it when they had a chance.

And, above all, is the general spirit of the German worker. He has reached the point where things go a little more smoothly for him than for the last few years. Unemployment has decreased slightly since the first of September. The German workers as a whole want sanity and sound conditions rather than the doubtful experiment of Moscowism.

Admissions of even the demagogue Sinowjew that Russia's internal plight is bad have given the worker food for thought.

"You waste too much paper," said the editor. "But how can I economize?" "By writing on both sides." "But you won't accept stories written on both sides of the sheet." "I know, but you'd save the paper just the same."—Boston Transcript.
